Chalkline Teacher Awards 2027

OFFICIAL CALL FOR ENTRIES

Have you gone the extra mile for your students? Don't sell yourself short: small projects that think outside the box are exactly what we're looking for.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU

Twelve finalists win an all-expenses-paid trip to the Chalkline Summit in New York City, June 14–18, 2027. Simultaneous interpretation will be provided in each finalist's language.

WHO CAN APPLY

Full-time public school teachers from any country, with at least three years in the classroom, in good standing with their school district. A letter of support from your principal is required.

HOW TO APPLY

Send a 3-minute video of your project in action, in any language. Students may only appear on camera with signed parental release forms. Late entries will not be considered.

THE FINE PRINT. Visa fees and travel insurance are the finalist's responsibility. Finalists must hold a valid U.S. visa by May 15, 2027. Passports must be valid for at least six months beyond the travel date. The award is non-transferable, and finalists must attend all five days of the Summit. By entering, you grant Chalkline the right to use your video in its communications.
